GOODWILL INVITES LOCAL JOB SEEKERS TO JOB CLUB, A FREE SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

Maple Shade, NJ – (October 24, 2011) – Goodwill Industries of Southern New Jersey & Philadelphia is pleased to offer JOB CLUB, a free community service, at its Maple Shade headquarters and training center. The purpose of JOB CLUB is to provide local job seekers with the resources needed to conduct a successful job search—at no cost to them. Located at 2835 Route 73 in Maple Shade, JOB CLUB is open every Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Staffed by employment specialists and job developers, Goodwill's JOB CLUB offers computerized career assessments and assistance in developing resumes, preparing for interviews and overall, creating successful job search plans. Participants also have free and unlimited access to Internet-ready computers for conducting online research and job searches; to local job postings and career fair information; and to phone lines and fax machines. Referrals to local job training programs can also be made through JOB CLUB for qualified individuals. Goodwill's JOB CLUB is just one way in which Goodwill fulfills its charitable mission of putting people to work.

“With layoffs making headlines on a weekly basis during this tough economy, Goodwill is pleased to offer JOB CLUB,” said Goodwill Director of Mission Services Cheryl Miller. “We encourage local job seekers to take advantage of this free weekly service.

A nonprofit, community-based organization, Goodwill Industries of Southern New Jersey & Philadelphia's mission is to put people with special needs to work. The mass collection and resale of donated goods in Goodwill's 19 area retail stores fund career services that prepare individuals with disabilities and disadvantages for competitive employment while contributing to America's recycling efforts. Currently, Goodwill operates employment training centers in Maple Shade, Pennsauken and Stratford. For more information on Goodwill, please visit www.goodwillnj.org or call 856/439-0200.
